

The objective of our discipline system is for each student to learn self-discipline and learns to distinguish right from wrong, between what is acceptable and what is not. It is also a means of students learning there are consequences for their actions.

The School has developed its Code of Conduct in order to emphasise positive outcomes that result from good discipline. The Code is referred to as . This is in the

